CRU invites you to an evening of inspiration, insight and celebration

Investing in the Future: What One Person Can Do

Leadership Seminar and Celebration Dinner with Michael Kendrick

30 YEARS

Over the past 30 years Michael Kendrick has introduced Queenslanders to a range of important concepts related to human services and community.

These ideas and frameworks have challenged, positively influenced, and continue to inform how we work with people with disability throughout Queensland.

Exploring how these concepts are being applied across a diverse cross section of our community, four local presenters will discuss:

- Values Based Leadership
- Bureaucratic Shielding
- Right Relationships
- Alliances and Networks

Michael Kendrick will also reflect on the topic of "What One Person Can Do".

We welcome everyone who is interested in disability leadership development for the future, and people who have benefited from working with and learning from Michael to attend this event.

A two course dinner will follow, celebrating 30 years of Michael's contribution to our thinking about what's possible for people with disability in Queensland.
