

7 step process for Self Direction

Margaret Ward, a parent from Queensland, Australia, describes a seven step process that can be used for self directing needed supports and services. This process emerged from her research as a Research Fellow at Griffith University.

7 Step process for Self Direction